

Stunt 25 Rules

1. Power- Will be one (1) stock, side exhaust glow engine of no greater size than .25. If it came out of the box marked "25" on the case, it's legal. Stock muffler must be used.

- a) Internal engine modifications are PROHIBITED.
- b) Muffler pressure to fuel tank is allowed.
- c) Tuned pipes are prohibited

2. Fuel- Will have a nitro content of not more than 10%. (CD has no way to check this, so don't cheat!)

3. Fuel tanks- Any rigid fuel tank is allowed.

- a) Uniflow tanks OK.
- b) Bladders and pacifiers are prohibited.
- c) Timed fuel shutoffs are not allowed.

4. Props

- a) Any size.
- b) Prop pitch is not regulated.

5. Model size- Models can be full fuse or profile of any size.

- a) Flapped or un-flapped designs OK
- b) Models may be scratch built, kit built, ARF's, ARC's, or any combination. Construction/finishing materials are not limited.
- c) All models must use 2 line control (no monoline type systems.)
- d) All models will have landing gear of at least one wheel. Uni-wheel, tail dragger, and trike style gear are all acceptable.
- e) No model will have more than ONE engine. No multi-engine designs allowed.

6. Flight- The standard AMA stunt pattern (including time limit) is to be flown and judged in the same manner as the regular PAMPA event. All AMA safety rules apply including pull test and line size requirements.

- a) All Models will R.O.G.
- b) Any line length is permitted (70 ft. max.)
- c) 3 attempts for 2 official flights.

7. Scoring- Standard AMA scoring for Aerobatics will be used (0-40 pts.). Only five (5) place awards will be given. Handicap points will be given to pilots based on their established class in PAMPA stunt.

Beginners will be handicapped	75 point	Intermediate will be handicapped	50 points
Advanced will be handicapped	20 points	Experts will receive no handicap	0 points

* The best of two official flights plus any handicap points is the posted score. In case of a tie, the winner will be whichever pilot is in the LOWER skill class. If the tie is between pilots of same class, the total of both official flights will be added together to determine placing.

8. Appearance- No points will be given for appearance in this event. A separate award will be given for "Best Presentation". This award will be decided by no less than two (2) individuals not participating in the Stunt 25 event.
